3. ERTL, FRANZ: A report states that one Lieutenant of the Gendarmerie Franz ERTL, in 1951 living in Bad Aussee, Austria, was a close personal friend of General Emanuel STILLFRIED. Apparently during World War II, ERTL had been liaison officer from the resistance group Bad Aussee to the Austrian Gendarmerie. Our files contain a reference to one Frantisek ERTL, a stateless Yugoslavian born 2 August 1928 at Ljubljana (Ljublana) Yugoslavia, who was an RFP candidate for admittance to the United States. Frantisek ERTL listed the following residences: November 1954-September 1955: Wehns, Pital, Austria; October-November 1954: Innsbruck, Egger-Lienastrasse 126, Austria; 1953-October 1954: Marburg (Maribor), Yugoslavia; 1949-1953: Skoplje, Yugoslavia (prison); 1948-1949: Skoplje, military service. ~~Spencer's~~ ERTL was sponsored by the National Gadjelle Welfare Conference; his form listed John M. THAR, 548 Caroline Place, Waukegan, Illinois.
